Fired up and ready to go

Five o'clock and you know I'm still dreaming baby
You call me on the phone and you wake me
I jump out my bed and I go
Down the stairs and I grab me a bagel baby
I run out the door like I'm crazy
I jump in my car and I go

Fired up and ready to go
Fired up and ready to go
You and me girl we both know
We're fired up and ready to go

Fired up and ready to go
Fired up and ready to go
They all tell us we should take it slow
But we're
Fired up and ready to go

this is still very early and the verses are not done yet. Just to make a start.
